Football success

By Mary McConnell

YOUNGSTERS from across London have taken part in a football event in Tottenham.

The tournament, which is in its 12th year, was organised by the charity Community Heart, based in Fore Street, Edmonton.

It is part of a project called Running With The Vision. which gives young people, who are not involved in other teams, the chance to play competition football and the tournament, which is sponsored by the youth charity the Jack Petchey Foundation, encourages them to think about fair play.

Kyri Yiallouris, who runs the project, said: "The day was a great success. The whole ethos of these tournaments in not just about winning but about how you play and there are fair-play trophies for the team playing in the most sportsman-like manner.

"Many of the players found the whole day a great experience as the football is played in such a positive environment. Even the team for St John Ambulance commented on how they want to come back and do our tournaments again as they enjoyed the atmosphere so much."

About 70 youngsters took part in the tournament, held at Northumberland Park Community School, in Trulock Road, Tottenham.

There were teams from the Apostolic Christian Church, in Fore Street, Edmonton, St Mary's Youth Club in Islington and George Green School in the Isle of Dogs.

The team from the Apostolic Christian Church were victorious in all three categories – the under-11s, under-14s and under-17s. They also won two fair-play trophies.

Kyri added: "We run weekly Saturday morning training sessions at Northumberland Park Community School, where FA-qualified coaches carry out training sessions with youngsters.

"The project is listed as a flagship community project on the Kick It Out website for its work in tackling racism, gang culture and encouraging and promoting respect, self-worth and community."

Hot shots: ACC Lions were victorious in three age groups during the tournament

JAIL AFTER DRUG RING BUST OPEN

By Mary McConnell

A MAN from Wood Green has been jailed for nine years for his part in a drugs ring that was set to smuggle 40 tons of cocaine into the UK.

Huseyin Azis, 44, of Sylvan Avenue, pleaded guilty to supplying heroin, money laundering and possession of false identity documents.

He was part of a gang run by Mehmet Baybasin, 48, from Edgware, who was jailed for 30 years after being found guilty of conspiracy to import cocaine.

He ruled over the London side of a drugs network that smuggled staggering amounts of heroin, cocaine, cannabis and amphetamines into the UK from South America, Central America and Europe.

His counterpart, Paul Alan Taylor, 55, from Liverpool, was jailed for 22 years for conspiracy to import cocaine.

Tosun Oyunco, 52, of Great Cambridge Road, Enfield, acted as a right-hand man to Baybasin and travelled the world to source drugs that could be smuggled into Britain. Oyunco was jailed for 19 years.

Police officers seized 10kgs of heroin, 50kgs of cannabis, 3kgs of cocaine and 22kgs of amphetamines from the gang, as well as £420,000 in cash.

In total, 24 members of the gang, which had connections across the world, have been jailed at Liverpool Crown Court for their part in the trafficking ring.

Sentencing, Judge Aubrey said: "The quantities or potential quantities of drugs that were to come into this country and subsequently flood our streets, pubs, homes and clubs and the potential profit that you were seeking or did make is staggering.

"I am satisfied they were not pie in the sky amounts that were spoken of. There was talk of bringing two to three tons of cocaine from a stockpile of 40 and consideration was given to bringing that in piecemeal.

"I am told, and I accept, that the wholesale value of 500kg alone is £17.5 million and the retail value would be that much greater."

Baybasin used his contacts across the world to supply drugs to Taylor and his associates. If a three ton test shipment of cocaine had been a success, Taylor said there was a stockpile of 40 tons ready to be smuggled inside shipments of tinned fish or wood pellets.

Mehmet Baybasin is the brother of Abdullah Baybasin, who was accused of being at the centre of a drugs empire worth billions of pounds and jailed for 22 years in 2006.

He was released on appeal last year after it was found the judge's summing-up had been unfair. He is now in a Turkish jail awaiting trial for drugs charges after 280kg of cocaine was seized in Turkey in January.

Smuggler: Huseyin Azis was jailed for nine years

NEWSPAPERS SUPPORT RECYCLING

Music man wins the chance to rap with the best

By Christina Pope

AN ASPIRING musician has won the once-in-a-lifetime chance to record with a leading hip-hop star.

Osasu Oyemwimina has wanted to work in the music industry from the age of 17 and was ecstatic when he won a sought-after studio session with British rapper Wretch 32 – beating hundreds of hopefuls.

Choice FM's I Have A Choice – Music Potential competition, set up to provide young people with a chance to explore their musical talents, gave them the opportunity to send in demos, the prize being an exclusive recording session with Wretch 32, who is from Tottenham.

The 23-year-old winner, from Edmonton, had been trying to get his track, inspired by some of Wretch 32's music, to the artist for nine months.

"I made the track in February and looked for different ways to get it to him," he said. "Succeeding was a great achievement and something I got a real buzz from."

Wretch 32 said of his role as ambassador for Music Potential: "Supporting it has been a great experience, from sitting on the panel and giving out advice, to being able to spend some time with up-and-coming artists. When you are at that stage in your career, you need all the encouragement and support you can get."

Talented Osasu benefited from advice from the chart-topping artist and added: "Winning the competition against so many other people confirmed that music producing is a career I am capable of pursuing. I now know that I will be able to reach my final goal."

Winning combination: Star Wretch 32 (right) with Osasu Oyemwimina

MPs urge residents to take advantage of fresh consultation on plans for waste treatment site

MPs and campaigners are pushing for residents to take part in a consultation on the Pinkham Way site this week.

Haringey Council was ordered to rerun a consultation into the designated site usage of the land off the A406 – close to the border with Barnet – after members of the Pinkham Way Alliance called in a planning inspector.

After a public meeting, the inspector advised the council that insufficient consultation had taken place on its core strategy, which included plans to change the designated use of the old Friern Barnet sewage works. The new consultation is due to end tomorrow.

Theresa Villiers, MP for Chipping Barnet, said: "It's important to make sure residents are aware that a new consultation is open for them to submit their views. I urge residents to make sure friends and neighbours know, too."

Pinkham Way Alliance chairman Bidesh Sarkar said: "We are convinced the core strategy and North London Waste Plan, which pave the way for building a waste treatment site, are fatally flawed.

"The amount of waste produced in London is falling – it says so in the North London Waste Plan – and we are convinced that if a fraction of the money required to build and operate this waste treatment plant was spent on improving re-use and recycling rates, then a new waste treatment plant would be surplus to requirements."

Lynne Featherstone, MP for Hornsey and Wood Green, in whose constituency the site would be located, said: "Anyone worried about Pinkham Way should take the time to respond to the consultation and object to the change of land designation."

David Burrowes, MP for Enfield Southgate, said: "The response to this consultation should be limited to the question of the designation of the Pinkham Way site, the danger to the site's nature conservation status caused by any planned development and the soundness, or otherwise, of Haringey's evidence for it."

Responses to the consultation can be made to ldf@haringey.gov.uk or to LDF Team, London Borough of Haringey, River Park House, 6th Floor, Wood Green, N22 8QH.

Fare dodger hit Underground worker with metal bar

A FARE dodger has been jailed for a year after hitting a Tube worker over the head with a metal bar.

Dylan Tracey, of Maryland Road, Wood Green, was sentenced at Blackfriars Crown Court on Monday, October 17, after pleading guilty to assault occasioning actual bodily harm and possession of an offensive weapon.

The 18-year-old was seen jumping over a ticket barrier at Russell Square station at 5.30pm on Tuesday, January 18.

When Tracey was stopped by a London Underground worker, he became abusive and aggressive before removing the bar from his hoodie and striking the man about the body and over the head.

He then fled the station leaving his 52-year-old victim needing hospital treatment for a small gash to his head.

British Transport Police Sergeant Anton Hunte, the investigating officer, said: "Tracey was known to police and was identified after CCTV images were circulated on police intelligence systems.

"CCTV footage clearly showed Tracey brandish the bar and strike the member of staff, leaving him little choice but to plead guilty.

"The CCTV evidence was backed up by several members of the public who witnessed the attack.

"This was a shocking and brutal attack on a member of staff who was simply doing his job.

"Tracey is clearly capable of completely disproportionate acts of violence and I welcome his jail sentence."

The sentence was also welcomed by London Underground. Its chief operating officer, Howard Collins, said: "London Underground takes any assaults against our staff extremely seriously and we are pleased that this criminal is now serving time in jail.

"Fare evasion robs the Tube of the vital investment needed to improve services for our customers. We will continue to work closely with our colleagues in the BTP to ensure that those found to assault our staff or cheat the system are brought to justice and face the sternest possible penalties."

Sentence: Dylan Tracey will serve a year

Burglar jailed for Waitrose break-in

A BURGLAR who stole expensive MP3 players from a supermarket has been jailed after officers traced him by his DNA.

James Francis Baines, of Birnam Road, Hornsey, was sentenced to 15 months in prison at Wood Green Crown Court on Friday after pleading guilty at an earlier hearing.

The court heard how the 28-year-old had broken into the Waitrose store in Ballards Lane, North Finchley, in the early hours of February 6, by smashing a large plate-glass window. Inside he broke into a display cabinet containing iPods and stole £1,800 in devices and accessories.

The break-in was discovered when a security guard went to open the store.

During the investigation police noticed a smear of blood on the broken window. The DNA of the blood was identified as belonging to Baines. He was arrested on February 23 and at interview he declined to answer questions about the burglary.

DC Graham Wenn, of the Acquisitive Crime Unit, said: "Baines has a string of convictions for burglary and his custodial sentence is well merited. It comes to a point when a community needs to be protected from people like Baines, who seem to think that other people's property is just a means of gratifying his own needs.

"The presence of the culprit's blood at the premises was the clinching factor in identifying him. This case demonstrates to potential burglars that when they break into premises, the chances are that they will leave some trace of evidence that forensics can use to track them down."

SNT sergeant cuts announced

By Linsey Humphries

DETAILS of the cuts to Safer Neighbourhood Team sergeants in Haringey have been announced.

A decision has now been made concerning which wards will share a sergeant, with plans for five sergeants to cover ten wards.

Fortis Green and Alexandra, Bounds Green and Woodside, Hornsey and Stroud Green, Highgate and Crouch End, St Ann's and Seven Sisters will share their officer.

The confirmation comes as part of the Territorial Policing Development Programme's review of Safer Neighbourhoods.

London Assembly member for Enfield and Haringey, Joanne McCartney, said: "I am very worried about these cuts to dedicated neighbourhood policing.

"Haringey has lost 40 police officers since March last year, and now the sergeants of our dedicated local teams are being depleted."

Ms McCartney thinks it is beyond bizarre that the sergeants are being cut at the same time as a "meet your SNT" campaign is being rolled out across the capital.

Acting Assistant Commissioner Stephen Kavanagh said: "It has become clear that some wards are much busier than others and in some locations sergeants themselves have told us that they have the capacity to supervise more than one team.

"In the current economic climate it makes it imperative that the Metropolitan Police Service is providing the best value for money from its resources and the shared supervision model supports this."

A police spokeswoman said borough commanders decided which wards share a sergeant by consulting with ward panels and partners, as well as taking into account local demand relating to crime and disorder to ensure that changes are made in an informed way.

Mr Kavanagh added: "Safer Neighbourhood Teams have contributed to increased satisfaction and confidence since they were introduced in 2006 through their work with partners and the community.

"This is a notable achievement of which we are proud and these changes will help to build upon this success."

Chairwoman is to sing for club fund

A CHAIRWOMAN at a sports club is turning to opera to help raise money for new squash courts.

Penny Chalmers, from Coolhurst Tennis and Squash Club, in Crouch End, has also persuaded two colleagues to perform at the concert on Sunday at the United Reformed Church, in Pond Square, Highgate.

The dramatic soprano has been a regular performer at the Royal Opera House Covent Garden, as well as at many opera houses around the world including in Australia, Korea, Germany and the US.

She will be performing with mezzo soprano Alison Duguid, who has sung regularly with Glyndebourne opera and English National Opera, as well as performing often in Russia.

Their accompanist David Seaman is a highly esteemed conductor and pianist at Welsh National Opera, with a special guest appearance from tennis club member, pianist Anna Tilbrook.

There may be very special celebrity guest surprise revealed on the evening.

Tickets for the event cost £20 and can be bought from the bar at Coolhurst Tennis Club from 9am to 10pm each day.

Money raised will go towards the Coolhurst Building Fund, which is looking to spend £1million on new squash courts.

For more information, call Penny on 07710 251201.

On song: Penny Chalmers and friends will perform

PARKER HAVING A HUGE IMPACT

By Dominique Stafford

SCOTT Parker has been compared to Tottenham Hotspur legend Dave MacKay after continuing his fine start to life at White Hart Lane by producing a man-of-the-match performance in Sunday's 3-1 victory against Queens Park Rangers.

The England international midfielder has been hugely impressive since joining Spurs from West Ham United in August – and is in fact yet to taste defeat for his new club – and manager Harry Redknapp was full of praise for the 31-year-old.

"Parker was just amazing, I haven't seen many displays like that," he said. "You hate to mention anyone in the same breath as MacKay, who was one of the finest players at this club, but it was right up there with the best.

"Dave would have been proud of that performance. He won every tackle, he broke things up and his all-round play was top class. He's made a big difference.

"I said to the chairman during the summer that the one player I wanted was Scott. I told him to forget looking for £20million players and that Scott was what we needed at this football club. I knew he'd make a difference, and that's what he's done."

Parker himself is delighted with the way he has settled in at Tottenham and firmly believes that they will go on to enjoy a good season.

"I'm enjoying it immensely," he said. "Playing alongside players like Gareth Bale and winning games is nice as well.

"We can go places this year if we believe in ourselves, and I'm looking forward to the rest of the season.

"We played some good football against Queens Park Rangers. I think they came out in the second half and put us under a bit of pressure, but overall we fully deserved to win."

It was a scintillating first-half display which set Spurs up for Sunday's victory, with goals from Bale and Rafael van der Vaart putting them in control.

Jay Bothroyd gave QPR some hope by pulling a goal back after the interval, but Bale's second sealed a deserved win for the hosts.

Missed chances prove costly as Borough slump

HARINGEY Borough were made to pay for a succession of squandered chances in the first half on Saturday as AFC Dunstable won 2-1 at Coles Park to condemn them to just their second defeat of the season in the Molten Spartan Premier Division.

The hosts were the dominant side prior to the interval, but were unable to take any of the good opportunities they created to break the deadlock and ended up falling behind on 39 minutes when they failed to deal with a free-kick and Graeme Buchanon blasted the ball into the roof of the net from close range.

Borough continued to look the more dangerous side in the second half and eventually got the equaliser they deserved on 67 minutes, Christopher Morgan grabbing his first goal for the club with a stunning free-kick from 25 yards.

But instead of going on to claim victory, the hosts finished with nothing to show for their efforts after giving away another sloppy goal with eight minutes remaining.

A poorly directed back pass from 40 yards out led to the needless concession of a corner, which resulted in Dan Ryan netting Dunstable's winner with a thumping header.

Haringey Borough, who saw their nine-match unbeaten run come to an end with a 1-0 defeat at Barking in the fourth round of the London Senior Cup last Tuesday, play host to Stotfold on Saturday (3pm).
